

Newcomers Club

of Nevada County

Dear Prospective Member,

Thank you for your interest in the Newcomers Club of Nevada County.

Our Club's Purpose is to provide an opportunity to the women of Nevada County for friendship and social activities. Our members meet and catch up at our Luncheon Meetings. Our Newsletter provides specific information about the upcoming luncheon meeting including location, program topic, speakers and menu choices. Luncheon Meetings are held on the fourth Wednesday of September through June, except for the exclusion of November, and an alternative date in December. Our luncheon programs provide members with opportunities to

- enjoy outstanding talent such as authors, drama groups, choral groups or musicians,
- become informed about current issues such as identity theft or elder abuse,
- attend our annual Fashion Show and participate in our annual Auction,
- learn about various aspects of Nevada County's history and resources, and
- participate in our Christmas Families Project, allowing us to provide a Merry Christmas for over 100 children.

Newcomer Activity Groups provide an opportunity for members to pursue common interests in smaller groups formed to enjoy specific types of activities such as Book Clubs, Bridge Groups, Bunco Groups, Cooking Clubs, Gardening Club, Monthly Movie Group and others.

To learn more about us, visit our website at NewcomersNC.org.
